Hospitality:

Meals play a very important part in the Bible. They are viewed as an essential component of hospitality. In fact, providing hospitality to strangers is so important that the host and host's family would go without rather than fail to provide food for their guests. Deep within this thinking is the idea that when you provide hospitality you are offering it to God who is in our midst. Jesus proclaimed that 'Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me;. Our ministry of welcome to each other is a way of receiving God and of allowing him to work among us.

God is Love.”
